

What have you been up to?
Fred Busch, Ph.D., FABP shares his news

American Board of Psychoanalysis

Fellows in the NEWS

Fred Busch, Ph.D., FABP

New Book:

In his new book, Fred Busch gathers his most important papers over the last 30 years. In this one can see how his first ideas served as the seed for what ultimately became an updated Freudian-based method of analyzing patients that is patient-centered. New ways of listening to patients based on sound Freudian theory opens the analytic atmosphere for patients and analysts. One also finds how Busch has attempted, over time, to incorporate the best of the new insights into the psychoanalytic situation from various sources.

"I believe it is destined to become a classic in the literature of psychoanalytic technique."

- Otto Kernberg, M.D.

In addition to Otto Kernberg's enthusiastic endorsement of Busch's work, there have been plaudits from around the world.

From: Elias de Rochas Barros, Training and Supervising Analyst, Sao Paulo, Brazil, Fellow of the British Psychoanalytic Society and Institute
Fred Busch is one of our most creative thinkers and writers today. In these selected papers one gets a sense of his special qualities. He has an uncanny eye for detecting critical issues within contemporary psychoanalysis, and for tracking down crucial ideas across regions and cultures, Fred Busch is a thinker to be reckoned with and a truly inspiring voice.

Purchase at Routledge

From: From: Stefano Bolognini, M.D. Training and Supervising Analyst, Italian Psychoanalytic Society, Past-President, International Psychoanalytic Association, Fred Busch is a bridge-figure, an explorer, a link-colleague who studies ideas and raises exchanges and confrontations. This is a rare attitude in our psychoanalytic history. He is an extraordinarily dialoguing colleague, who is able to recognize the otherness exactly, thanks to his own solid theoretical and clinical identity, with the addition of an unusual openness to the scientific encounter and shared elaboration.

Fred Busch
Ph.D., FABP

Fred Busch, Ph.D., FABP is a Training and Supervising Analyst at the Boston Psychoanalytic Society and Institute., and a Faculty member of the Los Angeles Institute for Psychoanalytic Studies, He has published over 70 articles in the psychoanalytic literature, and six books. His work has been translated into eleven languages, and he has been invited to present over 160 papers and clinical workshops nationally and internationally. His last four books are: Creating a Psychoanalytic Mind (2014); The Analyst's Reveries: Explorations in Bion's Enigmatic Concept (2019); Dear Candidate: Analyst from Around the World Offer Personal Reflections on Psychoanalytic Training, Education, and the Profession (2020); A Fresh Look at Psychoanalytic Technique (2021).

News | Facebook